Swiggy

Swiggy is a leading food ordering and delivery startup in India. The company started operations in 2014 and is headquartered in Bengaluru. Swiggy works by acting as a bridge between customers and restaurants. It utilizes an innovative technology platform that allows customers to order food from nearby restaurants and get it delivered at their doorstep. With Swiggy, customers do not have to keep the contact numbers of various restaurants and eateries in their locality. Swiggy works as a single point of contact for ordering food from all restaurants that may be there at a particular location. Swiggy has its own team of delivery professionals who pickup orders from restaurants and deliver it at the customer's doorstep. This has made the task of ordering food a lot easier for customers. Restaurants also gain by getting more orders and avoiding costs and efforts associated with maintaining their own delivery personnel. The idea for Swiggy came in 2014, when the founders realized that there was a huge gap in the food ordering and delivery space. Restaurants often faced manpower problems and their delivery personnel were also not trained to deliver food in time.

Pythons and Linux

Prof. Durgpal Singh, faculty at Rajiv Academy for Technology and Management, passed on his wisdom to our dear students of MCA final year on 6th and 7th September, 2019, on the topic Pythons and Linux. He stated that it has been said (and often required by recruitment agencies) that system administrators need to be proficient in a scripting language. While most of us may be comfortable using Bash (or other shell of our choice) to run command-line scripts, a powerful language such as Python can add several benefits.

Prevention from banking sector fraud

Mr. Tarun Soni, Marketing Manager of OBC bank, depicted his thoughts and experience on "Prevention from banking sector fraud", at Rajiv Academy for Technology and Management campus on 14th September, 2019, to the students of BBA 2nd year. He stated that the Bank fraud is distinguished from bank robbery by the fact that the perpetrator keeps the crime secret, in the hope that no one notices until he has fled away. The term bank fraud also refers to attempts by a person to obtain money from a bank's depositors by falsely pretending to be a bank or financial institution. And what all steps should be taken in case of an unauthorized banking transaction has coocured.

different because it's technologically so broad and because its application potential is so great. It's a combinatorial technology where the whole is much bigger than the sum of its parts. It is also focused on every kind of transaction processing. Consumers, corporations, and governments all benefit from Fintech, and they benefit from the unpreventable Fintech explosion. It's one of those technological cases where inevitability meets benefit, where technology adoption will happen regardless of how consumers, corporations, and governments react (even as their lives improve due to the convenience and seamlessness of fintech-enabled transactions).

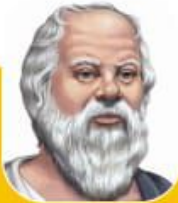

Time management

Ms. Amrita, motivational speaker visited our campus on 21st and 22nd November, 2019 for the students of B.ECom. He stated that Time management refers to the way that you organize and plan how long you spend on specific activities. It may seem counter-intuitive to dedicate precious time to learning about time management, instead of using it to get on with your work, but the benefits are enormous: Greater productivity and efficiency.

Communication

Dr. Shivraj Bhardwaj, Prof. of BSA Mathura stated his views that how communication in everyday life and how a good communication can improve one's personality in a better way. Youth, Politics and Change

Students are not the things to be molded, but their young minds should be allowed to be unfolded. We at Rajiv Academy for

Technology and Management (Mathura) try to incorporate the same mechanism by providing our students with the best overall development. It includes theoretical and also practical approach towards life. The practical approach is not only imparted in the campus but also outside the campus at various forms. Our students received an opportunity to attend a political debate at the "AAJ TAK Office". The discussion was revolving around the view point of speakers from different political parties regarding the promises made for Kashmir by our honorable Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi.

The leaning which our students shared with us post attending the session was that Youth should be given a chance to get engaged in politics to make the country free from the negative politics – the politics of caste, religion and corruption. This may bring a change and can be a big solution to the current situation and also purify the current system.
